

ALOHA HARVEST PRESENTS 'Ohana Packs

In partnership with

Produce and fresh food to support our community in response to COVID-19

With support from the City & County of Honolulu, Hawai'i Community Foundation, and Ulupono Initiative, Aloha Harvest is excited to offer a variety of high-quality food items in our 'Ohana Packs. These items are procured from Eggs Hawaii, Ham Produce & Seafood, Hawaii Foodservice Alliance, H&W Foodservice, Y. Fukunaga Products Ltd., and Y. Hata & Co. Ltd.

One 'Ohana Pack contains enough food to provide several meals throughout the week for a family of 4-6 people. We partner with local businesses and organizations to host 'Ohana Pack distribution events serving anywhere from 30 to 1,500 people in need, primarily individuals and families affected by the COVID-19 economic downturn.

To host an 'Ohana Pack distribution, you'll need to:

- Secure a venue and necessary permits for the event. Aloha Harvest can help with fees as needed.

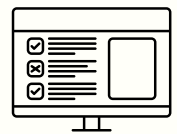

- Conduct outreach and share info about the event to your target community. Aloha Harvest can also publish on our social media channels if/as needed.

- Secure tents, tables, and chairs for the distribution event. Aloha Harvest can supplement/order as needed.

- Collect and submit recipient data no later than 2 weeks prior to the event. Aloha Harvest creates and hosts the online forms for collecting this data. We'll train your team on how to use the forms and will share all data collected with you.

- Consult with HPD for need of Special Duty Officers. Payment to officers is the responsibility of you as the host agency.

- Recruit volunteers for distribution (registration, traffic management, bagging of food items as needed, distribution of food). Aloha Harvest can supplement your volunteer base with at least 7 days' notice.

- Set up, break down, and clean up for the event. Aloha Harvest will not be responsible for waste generated during the event, such as pallets, cardboard, plastic wrap, etc.
