The Salvation Army Angel Tree. Pearlridge Center shoppers can make the holidays cheerier for the less fortunate by choosing an angel from The Salvation Army's Angel Tree and granting the wish of a needy keiki or kupuna. These members of our local community might otherwise not receive any gifts, but you can make their Christmas morning brighter by adopting someone this holiday season. Deaf Santa Celebration/Holiday Reunion for Deaf Community. The islands' only Deaf and signing Santa returns to Pearlridge Center for the state's signature holiday celebration for the entire Deaf community. When approximately 100 keiki share their wish lists in American Sign Language with Deaf Santa and his Interpreting Elves, the whole Deaf community rejoices that these special tykes and their families are able to experience something that the hearing community takes for granted as a childhood rite of passage.

This extraordinary holiday treat will take place on Thursday, Dec. 8 from approximately 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the former Toys "R" Us building.

“Yes, Virginia, there is a Deaf Santa Claus – and he only visits keiki at Pearlridge Center!”
